

6TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (MATINS)

JULY 20, 2025
8:00 AND 11:00

WELCOME GUESTS If you're looking for a church home, we hope you'll consider Redeemer. If you're visiting with us for the first time, we'd like to present you with a coffee mug. Check out the faith-strengthening resources on the information cart or www.redeemer-lutheran.net. If you have questions about this congregation or about the Lutheran Church, feel free to ask an usher or the Pastor. Please fill out a fellowship card (found in the pew racks) and drop it in today's collection plate, providing a phone number and e-mail address so that we may serve you better. Large print versions of this bulletin are available upon request at the Ushers' station. Thank you for worshipping with us – and, again, welcome!

PRAYER UPON ENTERING CHURCH

Almighty God, Your Son, Jesus Christ, restored Mary Magdalene to health and called her to be the first witness of His resurrection. Heal us from all our infirmities, and call us to know You in the power of Your Son's unending life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Treasury of Daily Prayer, pg. 549

MARY AND MARTHA (Luke 10:38-42) In our Gospel lesson today we meet two different women. We meet Mary and Martha. They are sisters and they both are believers and early followers of Jesus. These two women decide that they want to have Jesus in their home. Jesus accepted their invitation and from there the preparations began. Mary and Martha were having the Son of God as a dinner guest and everything had to be just right. Martha was preparing things at a hectic pace. You can see her working hard, almost beside herself with preparations. Then, suddenly, she realizes that her sister isn't helping her. Mary, instead was sitting. She was sitting at Jesus' feet, listening to every word that poured from his lips. She was hearing the Words of Eternal Life, from the one who is The Life. Nothing could be better! But Martha, did not appreciate this. She thought that Mary should be serving the Lord, not being served by the Lord. Martha was very frustrated. So frustrated that she complained to Jesus about her sister. Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

Are you ever like Martha; anxious and troubled about many things? This is not a good feeling. In our busy lives we often feel anxious and troubled about many things. Many things that are not important. As Jesus said, "only one thing is necessary." Only Jesus is necessary. During this week, you are encouraged to re-read the Scripture readings at home and sit at the feet of Jesus, who is the Word of God made flesh. There is room at his feet as you sit with all of the saints that have gone before, including Mary.

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Cong.: Amen.

(Matthew 28:19b)

Pastor: Our help is in the name of the Lord,

Cong.: who made heaven and earth.

(Psalm 124:8)

Pastor: If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand?

Cong.: But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared.

(Psalm 130:3-4)

Pastor: Since we are gathered to hear God's Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, let us first consider our unworthiness and confess before God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and that we cannot free ourselves from our sinful condition. Together as His people let us take refuge in the infinite mercy of God, our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

(Luke 18:13b)

Cong.: Almighty God, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Cong.: Amen.

Old Testament Reading (page 12 in the pew Bibles)

Genesis 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to [Abraham] by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day. He lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing in front of him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed himself to the earth and said, "O Lord, if I have found favor in your sight, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree, while I bring a morsel of bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham went quickly into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick! Three seahs of fine flour! Knead it, and make cakes." And Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to a young man, who prepared it quickly. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "She is in the tent." The LORD said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife shall have a son."

Elder: O Lord, have mercy on us.

Cong: Thanks be to God.

Epistle (page 983 in the pew Bibles)Colossians 1:21-29

You, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.

Elder: O Lord, have mercy on us.

Cong: Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel (page 869 in the pew Bibles)Luke 10:38-42

Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

Pastor: O Lord, have mercy on us.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Pastor: Let us pray for the whole Church of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

Everlasting God, You have made known the mystery long hidden and revealed the glory of the Gospel of Christ in us. Bring us and all the saints through the changes and chances of this mortal life, that we may be presented by Christ to You, as those whom Christ has made holy and righteous and fit for eternal life. Lord, in Your mercy,

Cong.: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Heavenly Father, You made Paul a minister of Your Word. Abide with all pastors and those studying to be pastors, with all deacons and deaconesses, with missionaries and translators, and with teachers and all who work to bring Your Word to Your people, that their labors may be fruitful and their hearts faithful. Lord, in Your mercy,

Cong.: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Gracious Lord, Your Son endured the cross for our sakes and is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Be with the young people of the LCMS as they gather in New Orleans this week. Fix their eyes on Jesus and strengthen them with hope and confidence to endure all trials and challenges as His disciples. Bless those who work and serve them, especially their parents. Give them a safe homecoming, and fill our homes with the forgiveness of sins in Jesus' name. Lord, in Your mercy,

Cong.: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Almighty God, we live in a land of great abundance, and we carry great responsibility for the good things of this nation. Bless all who make, judge and administer our laws, and guide our leaders to know Your ways and to follow them for the good of all people. Lord, in Your mercy,

Cong.: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Compassionate Father, in Your mercy You behold all people in their needs, and by Your grace You supply all that we need for this body and life and for everlasting life. Hear us on behalf of the sick and those who suffer, the grieving and the dying, especially... and those we name in our hearts. Help them all to rejoice in their sufferings for the sake of Christ, and give healing and grace according to Your will until You deliver Your people to everlasting life. Lord, in Your mercy,

Cong.: hear our prayer.

Pastor: Merciful God, You have forgiven our sins and delivered us from death through our Lord, Jesus Christ. Continue to pour out Your mercy upon us, grant to us all good things needful to this body and life, and keep from us all things harmful. From You, through You and to You are all things, O Lord, holy Father, mighty God; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who with You and the Holy Spirit is one Lord, one God, now and forevermore.

Cong.: Amen.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

REDEEMER’S STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday’s Attendance: 125

God has given each of us gifts and calls us in 1 Peter 4:10,11 to “use them to serve one another that God may be glorified through Jesus Christ”.

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP Luke 10:40b “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone?” Martha is doing the right thing but in the wrong order. Her service to the Lord is good, but she has let it get ahead of hearing His Word. Mary has placed the Word first, which is good. Is there any doubt that she will rise once she has heard the Word and get to serving as well? Isn’t that what hearing the Word always leads us to do? We listen, then respond. We believe, and thus we act!

AROUND REDEEMER

WORSHIP SERVICES AT REDEEMER are offered in our Sanctuary on Sundays at 8:00 and 11:00 AM and available online at 8:00 AM as a YouTube live stream, on www.youtube.com/@redeemerlutheranchurchhb7093/streams and accessible from www.redeemer-lutheran.net. Join us in the Fellowship Hall at 9:30 AM for Sunday School.

TODAY IN SUNDAY SCHOOL the children will learn about “Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael”. John 1:43-51. Jesus called Philip and Nathanael to believe in Him. In Jesus, access to heaven is given to all who believe.

BREAKFAST BIBLE STUDY will be August 9th. Our presenter will be Rev. Dr. Carl Fickenscher. Plan to attend this very informative presentation. Please RSVP to the church office for breakfast.

OLD GUYS BREAKFAST AT DENNY’S (You don’t have to be old) If you would like to join in on the fellowship and food (everyone pays for their own meal) we meet at Denny’s at 18477 Beach Blvd. HB (cross street is Ellis), on Fridays at 11:30 AM. Call the church office if you would like more information.

SAY “THANK YOU” WITH FLOWERS Redeemer’s altar guild reminds you of the opportunity to give thanks to our Lord on the occasion of a wedding anniversary, birthday, day of Holy Baptism, Confirmation Day, or day a loved one was called to the Church Triumphant, by sponsoring the altar flowers. The sign-up poster is in the narthex or call the church office and schedule your “thank you” with flowers. The cost of the flowers is $70.00 each week.

GAME NIGHT Come join us in faith, friendship and Tabletop Board gaming every month on the 3rd Saturday of the month from 5:30 to 10:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall. This is intended for all members of the Congregation who like games, and we encourage you to come and invite your friends. This is a fun outreach opportunity, and we have a few regular attendees who are not members of our Congregation. You can also contact Christopher Lundgren via the Church Office for more information.

ORATIO, MEDITATIO, TENTATIO (OMT) PRAYER GROUP - Luther used the Latin phrase oratio, meditatio, tentatio to describe a life of prayer. Redeemer has a Saturday morning prayer group that meets over Zoom on Saturdays at 9 AM when there is no Breakfast Bible Study. We pray about many needs from the Redeemer prayer chain and other sources. If you would like to participate, please email to Wayne Anderson (wayneland123@sbcglobal.net) or contact the church office.

PRIVATE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION AND COMMUNION are by appointment. Please call the church office to arrange a date and time.

JULY HYMN OF THE MONTH

O WORD OF GOD INCARNATE - LSB 523 Called the “poor man’s bishop,” the “children’s bishop,” and the “omnibus bishop” (because as the suffragan bishop responsible for the poor district of East London he preferred to travel by omnibus rather than use a bishop’s private carriage), Walsham How (1823-97) begins this hymn by proclaiming heaven’s finest, Jesus Christ, who chose to dwell among earth’s fallen.

In stanza 1, How pictures the incarnate God as Proverb’s Wisdom (Proverbs 8-9; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 2:2, 7); as eternal Truth (John 14:6); as the exodus pilgrims’ pillar of fire by night (Exodus 13:21-22); and as David’s lamp (2 Samuel 22:29). Here How reveals God’s great mystery of enfleshing Himself: from eternity, God; in time and to eternity, God-man. God’s unveiling of the living, path-illuminating Christ (Psalm 119:105) shines through the ages of Abraham, Issac, Jacob, David, John the Baptist, Luther, and How through our age and into future generations.

The One who becomes flesh to walk among us still goes ahead of us along life’s journey, lighting our path on land and guiding our voyage at sea. In stanza 2, the Church receives God’s gift, His revealed Word that always points to Jesus, who hushed the wind and calmed the wave.

In stanza 3, we pray that God might make the Church “a lamp of burnished gold.” In union with Christ, “the light of the world” (John 8:12), His Church is light in the Lord, the eyes of the hearts of His people enlightened by His Spirit (Ephesians 1:18; 5:8). How’s prayer, however, is that the Church might be a burnished, or polished, lamp, so that its holiness might be seen by all. God uses poverty and disease, trial and testing, to fashion His Church to be a lamp of burnished gold. God shines through His Church into the nations. But the Church’s suffering will one day end, and we shall see Jesus face to face (Revelation 22:4-5).

LIFE THOUGHTS IN THE CHURCH YEAR

Affirming the sanctity of every life means more than just ending abortion or opposing physician-assisted suicide. Sometimes it includes Gospel hospitality that sits and listens to neighbors about the crosses they carry (Luke 10:39). Bringing about death to dismiss and silence suffering may feel like a human right, but sharing one another's sorrows represents the better portion (Luke 10:42).

But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things; one thing is needful. Mary has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken away from her.”
